WORD FROM THE EXECUTIVE PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents/Guardians

15 September 2023

Term 3 is a special term for us as the Grade 12 learners are sitting for the preparatory examination, which commenced 24 August 2023. Our experienced educators are working round the clock to prepare the learners for excellence as this is a once in a lifetime event for them. I would also like to thank all our parents for all the support they have given to our school. The rest of the school from Grade R-11 may the spirit of remembrance be yours when you write your term 3 tasks and tests. Wishing everyone a successful term.

Kind regards.

Find your study style!

We're all different – and that includes the way we learn. Before you hit the books, ask yourself whether you're a visual (see), auditory (hear) or kinaesthetic (hands-on) learner.

If you're a visual person (someone who learns best by seeing things): underline or highlight key points in bright colours, look at your teachers or lecturers when they talk and write things down because you'll remember them easier that way.

If you're an auditory person (someone who learns best by hearing things): recite things out loud, make up songs about your subject matter; record your notes – use your phone if you have no other recording device – and play them back to yourself.

If you're a kinaesthetic or tactile person (someone who learns best by touching things): walk around the room, chew gum or even squeeze a tennis ball while you're studying; use role-playing with a study partner or demonstrate what you've just read or learnt.

May you have a blessed week

THEME OF THE MONTH IS KINDNESS

Children and their friends

Talk with your child often about how friends should treat one another. Explain that good friends respect others, follow the rules, and help those in need. The more children know about what makes a good friend, the easier it will be for them to recognize one when they meet that child — and to be one himself.

Emulate

As you strive to teach your child about healthy friendships, don't forget to model them in your own life. Demonstrating good relationships skills with your spouse or partner, and taking time to nurture close friendships with others, is as important as simply talking about these skills if not more so.

Communicate

It's also good to identify which behaviours are not welcome. Do not focus on specific children and why they are "bad" and others are "good." Instead, explain the values that you live by in your home, such as positive language, respect for others, sharing, and fair play. We have so much more fun when we spend time with friends.
